Pro-Life Town Hall Tour to Stop in Cranberry Township

Cranberry Township, PA—The 7th annual Pro-Life Town Hall Tour is coming to Cranberry Township. The general public is invited to this event which will take place on Thursday, April 27, 2017 at the Cranberry Municipal Building, 2525 Rochester Road, Cranberry Township, PA 16066., from 7:00 P.M. to 8:30 P.M.. All are welcome to attend. No registration or fee required. For more information, contact Kathy at 412-889-5389

This Pro-Life Town Hall meeting is one in a series being held all across Pennsylvania and will feature Pennsylvania Pro-Life Federation Executive Director Michael Ciccocioppo and Education Director Matthew Wagner. Topics will include Life is Winning, Death is Losing, Roe Will Go, Fake News is Failing, and how to Achieve the Dream. After a series of short, fast-paced presentations, they will respond to questions from those present.

“We live in unprecedented and exciting times,” said Ciccocioppo. “As the general population becomes more and more pro-life, we are seeing political victories, legislative victories, and cultural victories. We are circling the Commonwealth to continue to spread the pro-life message on the most important issues in our state and nation.”

“We are pleased to cosponsor this pro-life town hall,” said Rich Benacci, Vice-President of the Southwest Region Pennsylvanians for Human Life. “This should be an informative event, and we welcome everyone to attend.”

Ciccocioppo is available to do telephone interviews prior to the event. To schedule an interview, contact Matthew Wagner at lifelines@paprolife.org or 717-541-0034.
